LIBRARY
BOOK LAUNCH

SATURDAY, MARCH 28
FROM 10:30 A.M. TO 1:30 P.M.

118, CROISSANT DES TROIS-LACS

A poetic journey of a rich and inspiring life

We are pleased to announce the publication of a book by Ronald Pilon, a long-time resident of Lantier, former pilot officer in the Canadian Forces, and seasoned manager in the aerospace industry. After 34 years at CAE and a strong commitment to the environment and municipal politics, he offers us a collection of poetry that combines travel, memorable encounters, and reflections honed over more than twenty years.

👉 Step into his world and let yourself be carried away.

Join us,
no reservation required!

The municipal offices and library will be closed on Monday, April 6.

Don't have a tag for your dog or cat (that goes outside)?

To ensure the safety of your pets, we urge you to remedy this situation quickly. You can purchase a tag at the town hall or directly from the SPCALL in Sainte-Agathe at 355, rue Demontigny. The costs are for: spayed/neutered dog $15 - intact dog $30 - cat $30

Lantier, home to more than 30 local entrepreneurs

Why buy local?

- 1-Support businesses in Lantier.
- 2-Contribute to our region's economy.
- 3-For fresh, high-quality food.
- 4-Best value for money.
- 5-Shop locally = help protect the environment.

Send us your business card in JPEG format to: info@municipalite.lantier.qc.ca and we will feature your business for FREE on our website and in our annual municipal calendar.
